Call For Paper

The Centre for Marketing in Emerging Economies (CME) at the Indian Institute of Management Lucknow - Noida campus, is pleased to announce the 'Call for Papers' for the '13th International Conference of the Emerging Market Conference Board (EMCB), on the theme 'Future of Marketing in Emerging Markets: Looking Ahead,' to be conducted during 18 - 21 December, 2024 at IIM Lucknow - Noida campus. As a prelude to the conference, there will also be a two-day on-campus workshop on the topic 'Teaching & Practicing Marketing Research, on 18 - 19 December, 2024. This prestigious event, supported by a consortium of leading academic institutions, corporate and public sector enterprises, promises to be a landmark gathering of scholarly discourse, knowledge exchange, and innovations in the field of marketing. Following the legacy of more than a decade, the EMCB conference serves as a premier platform for scholars, researchers, practitioners, and industry professionals to explore the evolving landscape of marketing in emerging markets. With the rapid pace of globalization, technological advancements, and socio-economic transformations, the conference aims to shed light on the latest trends, challenges, opportunities, and best practices shaping the future of marketing strategies in these dynamic economies

Conference Theme

The conference theme, 'Future of Marketing in Emerging Markets: Looking Ahead,' is open to submissions that delve into the ever-changing terrain of emerging economies' marketing strategies, trends, and possibilities. We welcome articles that provide fresh perspectives, empirical analysis, theoretical frameworks, case studies, and creative methods for comprehending and influencing how marketing will develop in these dynamic and changing marketplaces

Objectives of the Conference

1. Knowledge Exchange & Exploration: Facilitate the exchange of cutting-edge knowledge, research findings, and best practices in marketing within emerging markets, while exploring emerging trends, innovations, challenges, and opportunities shaping the future of marketing strategies

2. Cross-disciplinary Collaboration & Practical Applications: Foster cross-disciplinary dialogue and collaboration among academia, industry, public sector enterprises, and other stakeholders, aiming to identify practical implications and actionable strategies for marketers, businesses, policymakers, and other stakeholders operating in emerging market contexts

3. Global Perspective, Publication, and Recognition: Provide a platform for gaining insights from a global perspective, offering publication opportunities and recognition for outstanding contributions to marketing research, innovation, and practice in emerging markets, while promoting networking, collaboration, and partnership building among scholars, researchers, practitioners, and industry professionals. These objectives aim to create a vibrant, inclusive, and impactful conference experience that fosters learning, collaboration, innovation, and growth in the field of marketing within emerging markets

Two-Days Pre-Conference Workshop on Teaching & Practicing Marketing Research Date: 18-19 December 2024

CME's offering this program is aligned with its goal of bringing state-of-the-art marketing research practices to the Indian and international markets, raising quality standards in marketing research, and developing more effective marketing strategies. Marketing research is regarded as a foundational topic in marketing education and comprises one of the most important components of marketing practice. Many instructors, however, often consider marketing research a challenging topic to teach and a dry subject for the participants to learn. This workshop attempts to provide an innovative teaching methodology in a way that will engage the participants across industry, academia, and public sector. An attractive curriculum comprising hands-on exercises, case studies, and group projects will be shared to address the challenge of teaching and practicing marketing research. Participants will be exposed to emerging facets of qualitative and quantitative marketing research tools and techniques commonly used in marketing and consumer behavior research for marketing decisions. Also, this workshop is a one-time opportunity for marketing research practitioners to understand the process of conducting marketing research in depth.

Key highlights of workshop

- Introduction to Marketing Research, Pedagogy of Teaching Marketing Research,
- Defining the Problem, Research Design, Measurement & Scaling
- Basic and Advanced Quantitative Techniques
- Practicing Qualitative Marketing Research
- Special Session(s) on Data Visualization with Tableau & Capturing Consumer Insights through Machine Learning
